Junior Faculty Consortium on March 17, 2022 in Hawaii

Application Deadline Extended to February 10, 2022 (priority to those who apply by January 30th).

The Annual Junior Faculty Consortium hosted by the Western Academy of Management (WAM) will be held on March 17, 2022, at the Hilton Waikoloa Village on the Big Island of Hawaii as part of the WAM Annual Meeting. We invite all junior faculty in their first few years since graduation to please apply!

Why, What, and When

Attending the Junior Faculty Consortium is a way for you to develop your professional network and be a part of a supportive community of scholars. The consortium offers panels, presentations, and small group discussions about research, publishing, teaching, and other career-related issues. It is an opportunity to meet with senior scholars who specifically attend to offer their time for junior faculty. Sessions are being planned for you to meet the WAM Ascendant Scholars award winners and the editors from WAM's Journal of Management Inquiry and other journals.

The Junior Faculty Consortium begins at 8:00 am on Thursday, March 17th and will run until 4 pm. First timers to WAM will find it a great way to make new friends and returnees are invited back, too.

Application and Admission

To attend the consortium, you need to apply by January 20, 2022, using the application form available on the conference website. Additionally, you will need to upload your CV and a research or teaching statement that will be shared with your peers and used for round table discussions with mentors.

Seating is limited and applications will be processed on a first-come basis. If you have questions regarding the consortium, please contact the consortium organizers directly: Jyoti Bachani (jb19@stmarys-ca.edu) and Chris Bradshaw (cbradshaw3@csustan.edu).
